For each word or book of sympathy, for every fragrant flower, for all that you did for me in my hour of anguish, I return most grateful thanks.

Mrs. Beckett Entertained at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. I. Cole entertained Friday evening with an elegant six o'clock dinner complimentary to Mrs. Beckett, of West Point.

The attractive home was prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and vases of roses.

In the center of the handsome round table stood a bowl of exquisite growing ferns and geraniums.

Covers were laid for eleven and dinner was served in five courses.

After dinner several games of bridge were enjoyed.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the gallant host and gracious little hostess were Mrs. Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jagoe, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ervin, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Edens, Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Wicks and Mr. and Mrs. Cole.

U. D. C. Notes

I remarked to an old soldier friend, "The Okolona Chapter U. D. C. met at Mrs. James Baskin's this afternoon, Friday Nov. 5th, 1915." "Was any business brought up before the house?" he asked with a mischievous twinkle in his eye and a "kind of pokin' fun way." "To be sure," I replied with a "how dare you air to ask such an impertinent question".

Some of these men you know think they are the only ones who can conduct meetings according to parliamentary rules, but they are mistaken.

The house was called to order by our affable little Pres. Mrs. Walter Smith. Then came the roll call by Miss Frankie Abbott, one of our younger and most enterprising members.

Though not such a large number, comparatively speaking, were present, we were glad to see some who had not been present for several meetings.

"During the War", happenings relative especially to Okolona were told by Mrs. Emma Lagrone. The proximity of place to our home town made them doubly interesting to us.

The suggestion was made by Miss Mollie Tremmire that we each, as arranged by a committee invest a small amount in some yearbooks, which we feel will be quiet the books the organization ought to have. A motion was made and carried to that effect.

Next on the program was the reading of a little paper on "Causes of the War" the late civil war. Though we lift high our hats and laud to the skies those upon whom the world has heaped her richest encomiums, though we know that braver men never shouldered the musket or fired the cannon ball than those who wore the gray. We are loath to repeat the causes of the war. A Greater than we said, "Let the dead bury the dead". There are the greater impending issues of today upon which we as a United nation must reflect and act. We feel that our good Northern friends here amongst us would say to us if called on to express themselves as did the little laddie lover to his lassie schoolmate:

"I spelled the word and went above you
I'm sorry, for you know I love you."

So as we commemorate with regret and sadness the departed gray, may a smile of recognition pierce our tears to greet the coming Oneness of the flag which waves o'er the land both North and South.

After some grand piano performances, a rising vote of thanks was given to our hostess for the nice refreshments served so abundantly, we adjourned to meet again 1st Fri. in Dec. at Mrs. P. M. Crawford's.

Three Orphanage Cars

On November 18th three cars will be loaded with supplies for the Baptist Orphanage at Jackson, Miss. One from Corinth to Okolona, one from Columbus to Meridian and one from Walnut to Newton. My impression is that the need of food and clothing has never been greater than it is right now.

We want for these cars everything to eat and wear: corn, meat, peas, molasses, preserves, dried fruit, canned goods, butter, eggs, dressed chickens, etc. Also flour in barrels and sacks, groceries of all sorts, dry goods, clothing, etc.

Stations on the Frisco from Myrtle to Amory, will ship to Tupelo. Those on the Okolona branch will ship to Okolona.

I urge pastors and committees to give the people a chance to contribute. They will give liberally if this is done a great work will be accomplished.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

W. A. Bodenhamer

Another of the old landmarks of Okolona has gone into the mysterious beyond. W. A. Bodenhamer was born in Gates County Tenn., 75 years ago and moved with his parents to Okolona when he was a small boy and Okolona only a village. He lived here the balance of his life.

He was a member of Gen. Tucker's brigade during the war and was dangerously wounded in the battle of Chickamauga, from which he was never able to go back into the service.

After the war he started law, and was admitted to the bar in 1868. He was mayor of Okolona 28 consecutive years. He went to the top notch in Masonry and was Past Grand Commander of the Knight Templars of Miss. and at another time, was Past Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Miss. He saved the Masonic Temple for the Masons when they were about to be closed out, and could have made $10,000 in the deal if he had taken the advantage the law gave him. He was a man of the strictest integrity and nothing could move him from what he thought was right. He was a man of strong convictions, and always ready to give a reason for the faith that was in him. His name stood for all that was good, pure and upright in all the walks of life. He had been in poor health for some time, and quietly, patiently and without a murmur awaited the summons that he knew would soon come.

He leaves only one sister to mourn his loss, the balance of the family having gone before. Miss Kate, who has been a teacher in our public school for a long time has the sympathy of the many friends in this hour of saddest loneliness.

To Drive Out Malaria And Build Up The System Take the Old Standard GROVE'S CASTLELESS chill TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents

Packing Food in Ferns. In Germany the use of ferns is coming into more and more favor for packing food which is transported either short or long distances. The practice became common in England before it gained equal vogue in Germany, and the results are said to be excellent, especially in shipping fresh fruit, butter, fish and other food products which require unusual care.

To Stop a Hoist.

If using plaster of paris to fill a wall crack moisten with vinegar instead of water, which will make it more like putty. Work it in the gap and smooth with an old knife. It will not then harden before you have time to apply it as when water is used.

"Telephone as You'd Be Telephoned To"

TELEPHONE courtesy is just a bit of ordinary politeness and everyday kindness that we put into our conversation when we talk by telephone.

Its the face to face brand of politeness and kindness used when we use voice to voice.

It's the same politeness and kindness that we like to receive from the other end of the wire.

Giving a little thought to telephone courtesy and practicing its simple rules will make the telephone an even more efficient aid for you. "Telephone as You'd be Telephoned To," always.
